

Allianz China General Insurance Company Ltd.

Supplementary Insurance Clauses on Expense Indemnification for Hole-In-One in Golf

Article 1 Conclusion of Supplementary Insurance Provisions

These Supplementary insurance Clauses (hereinafter referred to as “the Supplementary Clauses”) must be used as attachment to the Principal Clauses of Allianz China General Insurance Company Ltd.

Article 2 Insurance Liabilities

Within the Insurance duration, if the insured successfully scores a “hole-in-one” (see Article 1 for definitions), and the score must be witness by the golfers concerned and one witness other than the accompanies of the insured (including candy) when the insured travels within the country or abroad with valid certificates and participates in matches or friendly matches in the golf courses with official business license, the insurer shall pay the insurance the expenses for holding celebration on the date of the match in the bar of the golf club within the insured amount.

Article 3 Disclaimer

The insurer shall not take any compensation liabilities under any of the following circumstances:

- 1. The insured fails to present the “hole-in-one” certificate issued on the date of the match by the golf courses and consumption bills and receipt issued by the bar on the day (such golf courses and bar must be recognized by the insurer);
- 2. The insured is less than 18 years old;
- 3. The insured is deemed as a professional golfer;
- 4. Other disclaimer events that are prescribed by the main risks insurance.

Article 4 Insured Amount and Insurance Premium

The insured amount is the top amount that the insurer undertakes to pay the insured for each travel. The insured amount shall be agreed to by the insurer and the insured and be set forth in the insurance policy. The insured must pay the insurance premium to the insurer according to the provisions of the contract.

Article 5 Insurance Duration

The insurance duration shall be consistent with that of the Principal Clauses.

Article 6 Application for Insurance Payout

I. The insured must fill in the application form for compensation as the claimant and provide the following evidence and materials to the insured for the payment of the insurance payout:

1. Insurance policy or the originals of insurance certificates;
2. Household registration certificates or identification certificates of the insured;
3. The “hole-in-one” certificate issued on the date of the match by the golf course and consumption bills and receipt issued by the bar on the day (such golf courses and bar must be recognized by the insurer);
4. The original or copied version of the officially-issued business licenses of the golf club.

II. The above-mentioned materials and evidence are important basis for making insurance claim. If the insurance claimant fails to provide relevant bills and certificates in time and leads to the insurer’s failure to verify the authenticity of the bills and certificates and the contents on such documents, the insurer shall not be liable for compensating the part which it cannot verify.

Article 7 Effectiveness and Termination of the Supplementary Provisions

Once the effectiveness of the main risks insurance which the Supplementary Provisions is attached to terminates, the effectiveness of the Supplementary Provisions will terminate. If the main risks insurance becomes invalid, the Supplementary Insurance shall also become invalid.

Article 8 Interpretation

1. Hole-in-One: The golfer hits the ball directly from the tee into the next cup with one shot when the par from the tee to the next cup is above 3.

Article 9 Application of other Provisions

In case of any inconsistencies between this Supplementary Provisions and the main risks insurance, the Supplementary Provisions shall prevail; for contents that are not covered by the Supplementary Provisions, the Principal Clauses shall prevail.